A Jewel From The Word

LOVERS OF WISDOM LOVERS OF INSTRUCTION

*The Fear of the Lord is also the beginning of knowledge,
But fools despise wisdom and instruction.
Proverbs 1:7*

The fear of the Lord is the secret to finding the true knowledge and wisdom of God. A wise man will hear and increase in learning because he loves instruction.

Once again the fear of the Lord is the central theme that is expressed and communicated throughout the Book of Proverbs and is revealed as the key to unlocking the genuine wisdom and knowledge of God as well as the close intimate relationship with Him.

Jesus Christ loved the wisdom and instruction of the Holy Scriptures/Torah Scrolls Gods own Words.

As one who loved instruction, He learned the Divine Love and the Divine Order of God. He received direction for His life on a daily basis, became aware of and then became obedient to Gods commands which further secured His Divine mandate to fulfill His Kingdom destiny as the Messiah.

The Hebrew word for instruction is found in SC#4148. It comes from the word yasar meaning to reform.

It is the word muwcar pronounced moosar. It carries the idea of warning, admonition, chastisement, and reproof. Then it brings us to the word restraint.

These words right out of the definition of instruction give us a picture of the progressive godly response for advancement that can be ours after an ongoing reception of the instruction of the Word and the Holy Spirit into our hearts.

Those who love godly instruction will experience the sanctification process and come forth with a transformed Life in Christ.

5 Attitudes of A Lover of Instruction

Love the Warning
Love Admonition
Love the Chastisement
Love the Reproof
Love Restraint

Take a firm hold of instruction, do not let it go! (Proverbs 4:13)

When you hate instruction the Lord says, what right you even have to declare my statutes or have My Covenant in your mouth, seeing you hate instruction and cast My Words behind you. (Psalm 50:16-18 NKJV)

We are doing a lot of declaring and decreeing of His word in prayer and that is good as well as our right in Him,, but what about when your just going about your daily life.

If you hate instruction there is a tendency to cast the precious Word of God behind you when facing a vicious storm or trial. You don't have the right to declare His statutes or have His Covenant in your mouth unless you are repentant.

We are in a time we must examine ourselves.

Just to relieve you a bit, we know all of us have at times chosen to cast those Holy precious Words of life aside and give heed to our own fleshly counsel or some worldly counsel from a friend that seemed to line up more so with our own worldly desires.

He made it so easy. We don't have to literally hang on a cross like He did.
All we have to do if we sin is confess it and then turn away from it and receive the supernatural cleansing that was also provided in our salvation.

Even these statements of truth from the scriptures are instructions for us to live a blessed and overcoming life.

Those who love wisdom and instruction will place great value on the Word of God and stand strong when the pressure to compromise the Word comes.

The Lord is lovingly exhorting us for we must become a people of God that love His Godly instruction even if it includes an attitude change. (Refer to 5 Attitudes Above)

Take a firm hold of instruction, do not let it go! (Proverbs 4:13)

Gold and silver were two of the most precious physical objects spoken of in the Bible. The Lord uses their symbolic value all through the Bible to communicate His message.

The market prices of both gold and silver are at about a 25 year high and are expected to continue to go up for a season with just a little fluctuation.

The brokers are saying secure your future with gold and silver.

I hear the Lord saying,
“Receive My instruction rather than silver and knowledge rather than choice
gold. (Proverbs 8:10-11)

SECURE YOUR FUTURE IN HIM
